HENRY'S

Henry Joy McCracken (31 August 1767 – 17 July 1798) was an industrialist and Protestant Irish Republican from Belfast, Ireland. He was a founding member of the Society of the United Irishmen.

Henry Joy McCracken was born in High Street, Belfast into two of the city's most prominent Protestant industrial families. He was the son of a shipowner, Captain John McCracken and Ann Joy, daughter of Francis Joy, of French Huguenot descent. The Joy family made their money in linen manufacture and founded the Belfast Newsletter. Henry was the elder brother of political activist and social reformer Mary Ann McCracken, with whom he shared an interest in Irish traditional culture.
